

The motortorpedoboat HAVØRNEN stranded on 2. December 1952 at Scoby Sands off Great Yarmouth in England.

The motortorpedoboat HAVØRNEN stranded on 2. Dezember 1952 during an exercise on a sandbank at Scoby Sands off Great Yarmouth, England.

The shipping channel is known for its many sandbanks and strong tidal currents.

After 42 days on the ground the tug BARGLOW succeeded in getting free the motortorpedoboat on the 14. January 1953.

The boat was later repaired and could reassume its service.

Clicke on the upper picture \(in the original\) in order to start the series of picture or choose any of the pictures of the overview below \(in the original\).